

Upbeat Class

Music Workshops

Presented by our Upbeat Class consultant, Gayle Lawry

A staff development day? A curriculum day? After school?

Getting Upbeat Class going at your school? Trying to involve the whole staff in a developmental, ongoing music program for every class? Gayle can help you.

For a very reasonable consultancy fee, Gayle will spend a day at your school

- meeting with staff to outline where to begin with Upbeat Class
- demonstrating with your classes some of the springboard activities appropriate to specific grade levels
- setting out clear program goals and stepping stones to an ongoing, stimulating and meaningful music-education program

Who is Gayle Lawry?

As well as being one of Victoria's most well-known and respected music teachers, Gayle's many roles have included District Music Consultant, Music Network Co-ordinator and Pilot Program Leader for establishing classroom music programs in groups of schools. Like the Upbeat Class program, Gayle draws on an eclectic range of traditional music-education influences such as Kodaly, Orff, Suzuki and Dalcroze. And whether it is conducting a choir, rehearsing an instrumental ensemble, directing a musical or mentoring young music teachers, Gayle's enthusiasm and hands-on experience shines through. Her practical workshops are inspired and inspiring!

For further information contact:

Jeffrey Leask (ABN95302311097) 89 Dendy Street, Brighton, Vic. 3186

Phone: 9592 8700 Fax: 9503 0583 Email: jeffleask@optusnet.com.au

For all Classroom Teachers & Performing Arts Personnel